PUBLIC NOTICE

IN THE MATTER OF The Ontario Heritage Act, 1974 (S.O. 1974, Chapter 122, as amended) and in the matter of the lands and premises known municipally as the Old Dominion Building located on Queen Street East (Part of the West Half of Lot 6, Concession 1, East of Hurontario Street) in the City of Brampton, in the Province of Ontario.

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO DESIGNATE

TAKE NOTICE THAT the Council of The Corporation of the City of Brampton, on the 25TH day of September 1978, decided to recommend the designation of the lands and buildings known municipally as the Old Dominion Building, 8 Queen Street East, more particularly described as follows:

"The lands situated in the City of Brampton, in the Regional Municipality of Peel, (formerly in the Town of Brampton, in the County of Peel), and being composed of that part of the West Half of Lot 6, Concession 1, East of Hurontario Street, shown as Lot 6 on a plan of survey deposited in the Land Registry Office for the Registry Division of Peel (No. 43) and referred to as BR-14."

as a property of historical value or interest under The Ontario Heritage Act, 1974.

SHORT STATEMENT OF THE REASONS FOR THE PROPOSED DESIGNATION

The Old Dominion Building is recommended for designation as a building of both historical and architectural significance. The building was designed by Thomas Fuller, the Dominion architect at the time. Thomas Fuller also designed many other Dominion buildings in Ontario. The Old Brampton Post Office is the only one standing in the Metropolitan area.

The building is constructed of Credit Valley sandstone, quarried at Inglewood, Ontario, and is a full three-storey building, whereas most others are two-and-a-half stories. Thomas Fuller, previous to his appointment as Dominion of Canada Architect, designed the first Parliament Buildings in Ottawa, which were destroyed by fire in 1916. The Old Dominion Building was erected in 1888, opened in 1889 and has served as a post office, Brampton Police Headquarters and the City of Brampton Planning Department. The clock tower was installed some years after the original building was erected. The Old Post Office has always formed a very important part of the streetscape in the Core Area of the City of Brampton.

NOTICE OF OBJECTION to the designation may be served on the Clerk within thirty (30) days of the 13TH day of December 1978.

DATED as the City of Brampton this 13TH day of December 1978.
