ALL AND SINGULAR that certain parcel or tract of land and premises, situate, lying and being in the City of Sarnia, in the County of Lambton and being composed of Lot One Hundred and Ten (110) on the West side of Brock Street and the southerly ten feet (10') of Lot One Hundred and Eleven (111) on the West side of Brock Street, all in the City of Sarnia, according to Registered Plan 14.

SCHEDULE "B"

REASONS FOR DESIGNATION

This two and one-half storey home is recommended for designation of architectural and historical reasons. This house which was built in 1895 displays a fine example of Victoria style architecture. The bay window, gables, brick masonry, chimney, upper and lower windows and sashes, front and side verandahs, the slate roof, and the two stained glass windows are representative of this Victorian architectural style. At the rear of the house is a coach house (built in the late 1800's) comparable in design.

This house was built by Mr. James McKellar, a prosperous Moore Township farmer.
