SCHEDULE "A"

Those lands and premises located in the following municipality, namely, in the City of Sarnia, in the County of Lambton and being composed of all that portion of Lot Number 114 on the east side of Brock Street, according to Registered Plan Number 14 for the said City of Sarnia, more particularly described as follows:

COMMENCING on the south limit of said Lot at its intersection with the easterly limit of Brock Street;

THENCE easterly along the limit between the said Lots Numbers 114 and 113, 75 feet;

THENCE northerly, parallel to Brock Street, 66 feet;

THENCE westerly, parallel to the south limit of said Lot, 75 feet to the easterly limit of Brock Street;

THENCE southerly along the said easterly limit of Brock Street, 66 feet to the place of beginning.

This two and one-half storey home is recommended for designation for historical reasons. This house, which was built in the 1850's, originally sat on the south side of London Road just east of Brock Street. It is not exactly known when the house was moved to its present location, however, it is believed that Count and Countess Van Brockdorff and their family lived in it until approximately 1867. The Van Brockdorff's were thought to be political exiles from Germany, but the Countess whose middle name was Staniforth, was English.

The House served as St. George's Anglican Church's first rectory.
