

The Honourable Elizabeth Dowdeswell
Lieutenant Governor of Ontario welcomes you to the presentation of

The Lieutenant Governor's Ontario Heritage Awards

Thursday, February 18, 2021 – 4:30 p.m.
Celebrated Virtually

The Lieutenant Governor's Ontario Heritage Awards were established in 2006 by the Honourable James K. Bartleman, then-Lieutenant Governor of Ontario, in partnership with the Ontario Heritage Trust, to recognize individuals and groups who have made outstanding contributions to conserving Ontario's heritage.

The Lieutenant Governor's Ontario Heritage Award for Lifetime Achievement

recognizes outstanding volunteer contributions over a period of 25 years or more.

The Lieutenant Governor's Ontario Heritage Award for Youth Achievement

recognizes the most exceptional contributions by young people age 24 and under.

Individual recipients receive a $3,500 post-secondary scholarship, sponsored by the Ontario Heritage Trust and Canada Life.

The Lieutenant Governor's Ontario Heritage Award for Excellence in Conservation recognizes the most exceptional achievements of individuals, groups, organizations and communities through the completion of a specific conservation project.

The Thomas Symons Award for Commitment to Conservation recognizes one individual annually who has made exceptional contributions in the service of conserving Ontario's heritage through their professional career.
