The Trust’s activities and programs support the preservation of Ontario’s heritage as a living legacy and the agency continues to be the heritage trustee and steward for the people of Ontario; an advisor for heritage conservation; a centre for heritage information and education; and a significant promoter of Ontario’s natural and cultural heritage.

The Trust’s mandate as the government’s heritage agency is set out in the Ontario Heritage Act.

The objects of the Trust (OHA, Section 7) are

- to preserve, maintain, reconstruct, restore and manage property of historical, architectural, archaeological, recreational, esthetic, natural and scenic interest
- to conduct research, educational and communications programs necessary for heritage conservation, protection and preservation

The Trust identified the following priorities for 2014-2015:

Chair And Chief Executive Officer’s Message

The Ontario Heritage Trust is in a unique and privileged position to be able to travel throughout the province and visit with people from all walks of life to learn how they preserve their past, to see conservation at work first-hand, to engage with communities and partners on a variety of projects – all in the name of heritage. We share our expertise and passion with them and they engage in activities that clearly show that our shared heritage continues to resonate with the people of Ontario.

This past year was busy for the Trust: unveiling provincial plaques, conducting restoration work on heritage buildings, acquiring new properties and easements, launching and maintaining program activities, and working with partners to preserve and protect. All of this work is the measure of our accomplishments. Looking back, we are able to evaluate what we have done, while looking forward, we know the tasks that await us.

Expanding on the Trust’s 2014 theme of commemorating the 100th anniversary of the start of the First World War, Doors Open Ontario welcomed visitors to unique heritage sites in dozens of communities across the province – attracting a record number of people. Through compelling exhibits and engaging tours, the story of Ontario’s involvement in that conflict was told in unique ways. Featured sites such as cenotaphs, armouries and museums enhanced the program’s reach and augmented the visitor experience.

In 2015, the Trust celebrated our inspirational sport heritage – in conjunction with the TORONTO 2015 Pan Am/Parapan Am Games – through a Heritage Week celebration at the former Maple Leaf Gardens, a new and comprehensive web resource and a special edition of Heritage Matters. Clearly, our heritage is impacted by sports. In several instances, communities developed around sports. So, celebrating that heritage is a celebration of what largely defines us.

That said, conservation and preservation remain a large part of our work. In 2014-15, the Trust saved a few more acres of Ontario’s pristine natural heritage landscapes, while also leading restoration projects at a variety of Trust-owned properties. In addition, we took active roles in several conferences, giving presentations and networking with colleagues from across the globe.

The past guides us toward a better understanding of our future. We invite you to learn more about the important work of the Ontario Heritage Trust by exploring the highlights on the pages that follow. Understanding what we do will help you appreciate why our shared heritage is so incredibly important.

Throughout 2014-15, the Trust has proudly preserved, actively participated, willingly shared, vigorously encouraged and joyfully celebrated. Whether through new programs (like the Doris McCarthy Artist-in-Residence program) or well-established ones (like the Lieutenant Governor’s Ontario Heritage Awards and the ever-popular Doors Open Ontario), the Ontario Heritage Trust remains the province’s heritage agency.

With the support of a dedicated team of heritage professionals, Board members, local volunteers and partners, we can all make a difference. Please join us in helping to keep Ontario’s heritage alive.

Beth Hanna, Chief Executive Officer

October 2015
Highlights 2014-2015

In 2014-15, the Ontario Heritage Trust had many reasons for celebration. In addition to the regular day-to-day work – unveiling provincial plaques, protecting and restoring buildings, promoting our museum sites, running Doors Open Ontario provincwide, recognizing volunteers for their ongoing conservation efforts, showcasing performers at the Elgin and Winter Garden Theatre Centre and monitoring an array of natural heritage properties – the Trust has not forgotten to celebrate the following accomplishments. Here are some highlights of the year in review.

Engage youth and diverse audiences

In 2014-15, the Trust expanded and enhanced opportunities to engage youth and diverse audiences through our programs, partnerships and recognition programs.

Heritage Week 2015 was celebrated on February 17, 2015 at Toronto’s Maple Leaf Gardens (now the Mattamy Athletic Centre). In partnership with KidSport Ontario, this exciting event focused on the theme of Play, Endure. Inspire. Ontario’s sport heritage. The 2015 theme explored the traditions, innovations, heroes and diversity of sport in Ontario.

Every year, Doors Open Ontario attracts large crowds across the province. From April to October, residents and visitors are invited to discover first-hand Ontario’s hidden heritage treasures, some of which have never been open to the public. Since the program was launched in 2002, over six million visits have been made to heritage sites participating in this exciting initiative. Doors Open Ontario, long considered a cultural phenomenon, continues to celebrate our province’s strength in diversity.

In 2014, Doors Open Ontario – with the theme Remembering the First World War: Ontario in Transition – experienced the highest participation in program history: 509,124. The 2014 program featured 49 events hosted in 192 communities; more than 1,200 sites opened their doors. More than $5 million is spent annually in local Doors Open Ontario communities.

In partnering with the Institute for Canadian Citizenship’s Cultural Access Pass (CAP) program – which provides access to more than 1,200 cultural institutions – the Trust created meaningful connections for both new and more established Canadian citizens. Additionally, by teaming up with the Ontario Tourism Marketing Partnership Corporation, we provided access to five of our historical sites and museums through the Ontario Fun Pass 2014 program, introducing a youthful, diverse and engaged audience to our world.

The Trust offered employment and mentoring opportunities for 31 students in museum management, curatorship, archaeology, restoration arts, conservation programs, research, marketing, communications and fundraising. The Trust also provided a one-year marketing and communications placement for an Ontario Internship Program intern, focused on online communications and social media, and partnered with RBC’s Career Launch Program to provide fundraising experience for an RBC associate. The contributions of these young professionals spanned more than 12,000 hours.

The Trust annually delivers youth programs focused on introducing children to the rare and exciting experience of archaeological digs. Children learned to excavate, analyze, record artifacts and work alongside professionals at the Spadina Museum Historic House and Gardens, and at Nochemowening in Northern Bruce Peninsula.

In 2014, the Trust strategically remodelled its recognition awards program, with a strong focus on excellence. Enhancements included a new award – Excellence in Conservation – and an external jury to help with the adjudication. Through the Lieutenant Governor’s Ontario Heritage Awards for Youth Achievement and the Young Heritage Leaders program, we continue to recognize the contributions of young people throughout Ontario.

Telling Ontario’s story

Ontario’s story is vast and complex, told from a variety of different and compelling perspectives. In telling this story, the Trust continues to build and leverage an emotional connection with new and existing audiences, enabling us to find common ground, while still showcasing our distinctiveness and bringing a human interest component to our events and activities.

Each person in Ontario’s past, each event that has occurred over time, and every place across this province tells a story that weaves a complete yet unique narrative. The Ontario Heritage Trust is dedicated to bringing these stories to life by engaging people in our events and involving them with our interpretive themes and activities.

The Trust’s interpretive theme and key commemoration for 2014 was the anniversary of the start of the First World War – specifically, Remembering the First World War: Ontario in transition. The Trust hosted events, activities and programs to honour key people, places, events and stories from this important chapter in Ontario’s history. Highlights included:

• The Trust’s Heritage Week event at Canadian Forces Base Borden in February 2014

Huzza for Freedom! – an exhibit at Toronto’s Parliament interpretive centre that showcased reproductions of 24 political cartoons from, or about, the War of 1812 – was delivered in partnership with students from the University of Toronto Masters of Museum Studies program.
Commemoration of the 100th anniversary of the start of the First World War through Doors Open Ontario events in communities throughout the province

Uncle Tom’s Cabin Historic Site in Dresden, Parliament interpretive centre and Enoch Turner School House, both in Toronto, hosted the Archives of Ontario’s travelling exhibit Dear Sadie: Love, Lives and Remembrance from Ontario’s First World War

Social media outreach related to significant First World War anniversaries and themes was shared on Trust Twitter and Facebook pages

First World War commemorative entertainment was organized for Emancipation Day at Uncle Tom’s Cabin Historic Site; 550 people attended the event – enjoying food, music, dance and other activities – through the financial support of the RBC Foundation

A series of speakers and tours at Fulford Place in Brockville to commemorate the First World War

A special plaque unveiling and dedication in Guelph in November 2014 to commemorate Lieutenant-Colonel John McCrae, author of In Flanders Fields; outreach for this unveiling reached worldwide scope through an event listing with the Imperial War Museum’s First World War Centenary Partnership in London, England

Other Ontario stories were told through additional provincial plaque unveilings commemorating James B. Collip 1892-1965 (a co-founder of insulin) in Belleville and the Naval and Military Establishments on Lake Huron in Penetanguishene.

Ontario’s sport heritage

Heritage Week 2015 was celebrated on February 17, 2015 at Toronto’s Maple Leaf Gardens (now the Mattamy Athletic Centre). In partnership with KidSport Ontario and with the support of TORONTO 2015 Pan Am/Parapan Am Games Organizing Committee, this exciting event focused on the theme of Play. Endure. Inspire. Ontario’s sport heritage. The 2015 theme explored the traditions, innovations, heroes and diversity of sport in Ontario.

Hosted by CBC News Toronto anchors Anne-Marie Mediwake and Dwight Drummond, the program featured a special “Ask an Athlete” segment with current and retired Canadian athletes – including: two-time Olympian Perdita Felicien, Paralympian basketball gold medallist Tyler Miller, nine-time national boxing champion Mandy Bujold and former Toronto Maple Leaf Bob Nevin. Attendees also participated in heritage expositions showcasing sport halls of fame from across Ontario, and tours of the former Maple Leaf Gardens; students tried a variety of sport activities.

An online web resource – Snapshots of Ontario’s sport heritage – was launched to showcase the people, places and events in Ontario’s sport history through the themes of sports personalities, traditions and key events, connection between community geography and sport, impact of immigration on sport and influence of sport on the arts, literature, music and cultural identity. The exhibit also features a historical sport timeline, from ancient times to 2015, a listing of the Ontario Sport Award winners and comprehensive sport heritage resources.

A special edition of Heritage Matters magazine was also released in February, exploring the theme in detail.

Building partnerships

Heritage conservation and promotion cannot happen without the support of many partner and volunteer groups across the province. The Trust works with a wide array of partners, including: governments, First Nations and Métis Councils, conservation authorities, land trusts, heritage organizations and private landowners to ensure the stewardship of its lands and easements, establishing and strengthening vital community relationships while encouraging vibrant local participation and engagement. More than 90 per cent of the Trust’s properties are managed with partners. Two examples of partner-based projects included:

Fool’s Paradise – a large, cliff-side property overlooking the majestic Scarborough Bluffs – is the former home and studio of Doris McCarthy (1910-2010), artist, writer, educator and conservationist. In keeping with Doris McCarthy’s wishes when she donated the property to the Trust, we have converted Fool’s Paradise into an Artist-in-Residence Centre, as part of the Doris McCarthy Artist-in-Residence program. Professional visual artists, musicians and writers can apply to live and work at this serene and picturesque site. The Centre embraces the multi-disciplinary nature of the arts, strives to demonstrate the positive and restorative influence of landscape and the environment, and fosters excellence among contemporary Canadian artists, musicians and writers. For 2014-15, the successful artists in residence included Hussein Janmohamed (singer, composer and conductor from Coquitlam, British Columbia), followed by Todd Stewart (printmaker from Montreal, Quebec).

The Trust gratefully acknowledges the support of our expert advisory panel in reviewing and adjudicating applications for the first year of this new program: Ontario Society of Artists; Canadian Society of Painters in Water Colour; Doris McCarthy Gallery, University of Toronto Scarborough; Writers’ Union of Canada, OCAD University and the University of Toronto Faculty of Music.

The RBC Emerging Artists Gallery Project – a unique partnership between the Trust and the RBC Foundation – created an opportunity for the Elgin and Winter Garden Theatre Centre to develop a gallery for exhibiting students and emerging artists’ work. In 2014, the Theatre Centre worked with Ryerson University and OCAD University to present three photo and art exhibitions. Opening in February 2014, Moving On was a collaboration of Ryerson second-year photography students and Metrolinx. The exhibition featured over 90 large-format photographs that explored urban transportation in the Greater Toronto Area. Landed: Together in Canada showcased the talents of Sarah Foy, a graduate of Ryerson University’s Master of Fine Arts in Documentary Media. The exhibition ran from May to July and was part of World Pride celebrations at the end of June. The final exhibition of the year opened in November and was presented by OCAD University alumni, students and faculty. It featured a group exhibition of mixed media works simply titled Entr’acte. The juxtaposition of works by recent graduates with those of faculty gave viewers the chance to see how OCAD University generates a vibrant, imaginative and dynamic environment where creativity thrives.
Heritage conservation

In keeping with our mandate, the Trust’s conservation and stewardship activities reflect the diversity of place and people, and demonstrate excellence and best practices in conservation. During 2014-15, the Trust undertook 18 capital projects at 11 sites with total costs of $1.4 million. This work included preservation, restoration and rehabilitation projects supporting the conservation, interpretation and continued use of our properties. Highlights included:

• With a cost-share contribution from Parks Canada, the Trust began structural and plaster conservation work at Macdonell-Williamson House (East Hawkesbury). The delicate decorative plaster cornices and other surviving fragments from 1817 were consolidated and reaffixed to their substrates, leading to the conservation of their early 19th-century finishes. The structure was reinforced using an innovative technique involving the insertion of steel plates and epoxy into the original framing timbers.

• During the replacement of carpets at Toronto’s Elgin and Winter Garden Theatre Centre, newly discovered terrazzo and mosaic tile floors around the Davies Takacs Lobby bar were also refinshed.

• All interior painted surfaces at Toronto’s Enoch Turner Schoolhouse – including the schoolroom, salon and West Hall – were repaired and repainted. Scheduling this work was particularly challenging, given the busy school and event bookings at the site. The project preserves the character and quality of these interpreted spaces, and enhances rental opportunities and business development.

• Brockville’s Fulford Place, a National Historic Site owned by the Trust, had its original wrought iron entry gates restored with support from the Parks Canada cost-sharing funding.

• In July 2014, the Trust acquired a conservation easement to protect the 200-acre (80-hectare) Garland Side Road natural heritage property in Ottawa. This significant wetland complex was acquired by the South Nation Region Conservation Authority with financial support from the Trust-administered Natural Spaces Land Acquisition and Stewardship Program.

• Transfer of the Third Parliament archaeological collection (Toronto) from the Ontario Ministry of Tourism, Culture and Sport to the Trust occurred in March 2014. Since then, the Trust has catalogued and re-housed this significant archaeological collection.

• The Cora Munn Property is a 76-acre (31-hectare) former farm located within the Cramahe Hills complex provincial life science and earth science Area of Natural and Scientific Interest (ANSI). Known locally as Cora’s Woods, the property consists of a sensitive conifer valley with large, natural cedars and an easterly facing hillside that contains ancient Lake Iroquois beach and shore-cliff features. A number of provincially rare species thrive in the valley area, which serves as an important wildlife corridor. The previous owner of the property, Cora Munn, strove to enhance the natural features of the property by planting more than 100,000 trees during her ownership. In 2011, Munn left her property as a bequest to the Lone Pine Marsh Sanctuary Inc. (LPMS). Munn’s dream of legal protection in perpetuity, also part of her bequest, was fulfilled in November 2014 when a Managed Forest Conservation Easement Agreement – the first of its kind in the province – was registered on title between the LPMS and the Ontario Heritage Trust. This partnership between the Trust and the LPMS ensures that Cora’s Woods will be protected forever.

• Landscaping repairs began at Sir Harry Oakes Chateau in Kirkland Lake, with support from the Sheila Brown Family.

• Toronto’s Ontario Heritage Centre began preliminary work on the replacement of cast stone window sills, repair of exterior masonry and restoration of the building’s operable windows through the assistance of a cost-share grant from Parks Canada. The Ontario Heritage Centre has an exceptional variety of intact, operable windows from the Edwardian era.

• Restoration of Owen Sound’s Canadian Pacific Railway Station was completed in 2014-15. The Trust, which holds an easement on this art deco/modern building, administered a capital grant to the city for this conservation project through funding by a Trust donor.

In 2014, the Trust launched the Doris McCarthy Artist-in-Residence program. This program gives musicians, visual artists and writers free accommodation and studio space to nurture their creativity. Fulfilling Doris McCarthy’s wishes when she donated her home and land to the Trust, the Artist-in-Residence Centre hosted multi-disciplinary artists in 2014-15, giving them access to the positive and restorative influence of nature.

In 2014, the Trust revamped the Lieutenant Governor’s Ontario Heritage Awards. Great-West Life, London Life and Canada Life is a long-standing supporter of the Young Heritage Leaders program, which celebrates youth achievement in heritage.

Doors Open Ontario 2014 was a success with 49 community events and a record 509,124 site visits. The Ontario Tourism Marketing Partnership Corporation and the Ontario Cultural Attractions Fund backed our marketing efforts, providing funds to print over one million copies of the brochure and execute digital advertising and media buys. Concurrently, TD Bank generously supported Trails Open Ontario 2014, giving nature enthusiasts access to trails, parks and natural heritage, and a chance to gain an active understanding of the natural beauty of our province.

RBC Foundation has supported the Emancipation Day celebrations at Uncle Tom’s Cabin Historic Site for many years, as well as the RBC Emerging Artists Gallery at Toronto’s Elgin and Winter Garden Theatre Centre.

None of these accomplishments, however, could have been possible without support from government and community partners, corporate and foundation sponsors, a strong contingent of local volunteers and donors like you. Without all of you, we would not be able to make the difference we have made to protect our built, cultural and natural heritage. The Ontario Heritage Trust sincerely thanks everyone who has given their time, effort and gifts this year.

Singer and composer Hussein Janmohamed was the first artist at the Doris McCarthy Artist-in-Residence Centre.

Partnership is at the heart of the Trust’s success. This year, the Trust reached a number of important fundraising milestones with the support of our corporate and government partners. Thanks to our donors and sponsors, we are able to continue our important work in heritage.

Management Responsibility
For Financial Reporting

The Ontario Heritage Trust continues to implement and review ongoing strategies and procedures to augment sustainable revenue sources, encourage growth opportunities and identify further savings from operational efficiencies and alternative service delivery models.

The accompanying financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2015 are prepared in accordance with Canadian Public Sector Accounting Standards for Government Not-for-profit Organizations, using management’s best estimates and reasonable judgments, where necessary, to ensure that the financial statements are presented fairly in all material respects. Management is responsible for the integrity of the financial statements and maintains a system of internal controls designed to provide reasonable assurance that the assets are adequately safeguarded and that relevant, reliable and accurate financial information is available on a timely basis.

As an operational enterprise agency, the Trust complies with all applicable government directives set out in the Memorandum of Understanding with the Minister of Tourism, Culture and Sport. In addition, formal internal operating policies and procedures, and an organizational structure that provides for appropriate delegation of authority and segregation of responsibilities are in place to manage resources economically and efficiently. The Trust is committed to achieving the long-term sustainable financial stability of the agency.

The Ontario Heritage Trust’s Board of Directors, through the Finance and Investment Committee (also acting as the Audit Committee), is responsible for ensuring that management fulfils its responsibilities for financial reporting and controls. The Finance and Investment Committee meets regularly with management, and annually with the Office of the Auditor General of Ontario, to discuss financial matters, including: reporting process, auditing matters and any related issues, and to satisfy itself that responsibilities are properly discharged. The Finance and Investment Committee of the Board has reviewed these financial statements with the Auditors and representatives of the Office of the Auditor General and they have been approved by the Board of Directors.

The financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2015 are audited by the Office of the Auditor General of Ontario, whose responsibility is to express an opinion on whether the financial statements are fairly presented in accordance with Canadian Public Sector Accounting Standards. The Independent Auditor’s Report outlines the scope of the Auditor’s examination and opinion.

We are pleased that the Office of the Auditor General of Ontario has issued an unqualified audit opinion.

Financial Statements

Year ended March 31, 2015
Independent Auditor's Report

To the Ontario Heritage Trust and to the Minister of Tourism, Culture and Sport

I have audited the accompanying financial statements of the Ontario Heritage Trust, which comprise the statements of financial position as at March 31, 2015, and the statements of operations, changes in fund balances, remeasurement gains and losses and cash flows for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit. I conducted my audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that I comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my opinion.

Opinion

In my opinion, these financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Ontario Heritage Trust as at March 31, 2015, and the results of its operations, its remeasurement gains and losses and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards.

See accompanying notes to financial statements.
Ontario Heritage Trust (the "Trust") established by the Ontario Heritage Act R.S.O. 1990 as an agent of Her Majesty in Right of Ontario, is committed to preserving, protecting and promoting Ontario's heritage by accepting, holding in trust and caring for gifts of provincially significant heritage properties and articles of historical, architectural, archaeological, recreational, aesthetic, natural and scenic interest. It provides technical expertise and financial support to individuals, organizations and public bodies involved in heritage preservation, and undertakes research, public education and other initiatives. The Trust is a not-for-profit provincial agency operating under the Ministry of Tourism, Culture and Sport and, is exempt from taxes on its real property, business and income and can issue official donation receipts to donors.

1. Significant accounting policies:

(a) Basis of presentation:

The financial statements have been prepared by management in accordance with accounting standards for government not-for-profit organizations, included in the Canadian public sector accounting ("PSA") standards.

The Trust follows the restricted fund method of accounting for contributions.

(b) Fund accounting:

Resources are classified for accounting and reporting purposes into funds that are held in accordance with their specified purpose or in accordance with directives issued by the Board of Directors. Transfers between funds are made when approved by the Board of Directors, except for the Externally Restricted Funds, which require donor approval. For financial reporting purposes, there are three groups of funds:

(i) General Fund:

The General Fund includes all of the ordinary day-to-day transactions of the Trust. The Trust may disburse, expend or otherwise deal with any part of its General Fund for the purpose of any of the objects of the Trust, and to defray any expenses incurred in carrying out its objectives.
1. Significant accounting policies (continued):

(ii) Restricted Funds:

Restricted Funds consist of:

(a) Externally Restricted Funds:

(i) Amounts received from the Province of Ontario (the "Province"), the federal government and non-profit organizations to finance specific projects.

(ii) Gifts received whose use is restricted in accordance with the terms specified by the donors.

(iii) A reserve fund established under Section 13 of the Ontario Heritage Act whose capital cannot be spent without the consent of the Lieutenant Governor in Council.

(b) Internally Restricted Funds:

Amounts set aside by the Board of Directors to finance specific projects.

(iii) Endowment Funds:

The Endowment Funds report non-expendable resources held in-trust. Interest income subject to restrictions stipulating that it be added to the principal amount of the Endowment Funds is reported as revenue of the Endowment Funds. Other interest income earned on resources of the Endowment Funds is reported in the General or Restricted Funds depending on the nature of any restrictions imposed by contributors of funds for endowment.
1. Significant accounting policies (continued):

(c) Cash and cash equivalents:

Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash on hand, bank balances and term deposits with duration of up to 90 days from the date of acquisition.

(d) Short-term investments:

Short-term investments consist of term deposits and bonds, maturing within 12 months with duration of greater than 90 days from the date of acquisition.

(e) Capital assets:

Purchased capital assets, comprising computer equipment, office equipment and furniture and fixtures, are stated at cost less accumulated amortization. Contributed capital assets are recorded at fair value at the date of contribution. Amortization is provided on a straight-line basis over the assets' estimated useful lives of three to five years.

(f) Properties and articles of a cultural and natural heritage nature:

Purchased properties and articles of a cultural and natural heritage nature are expensed at cost, while those donated are recorded as revenue and expenses at their fair value at the date of contribution. Expenditures for restoration on owned properties are expensed as incurred.

Properties, such as land, buildings and articles owned by the Trust (referred to in note 7), are classified as part of cultural and natural heritage collections held in trust and, as such, are exempt from being included as capital assets and are not subject to amortization.

(g) Employee benefits:

The Trust follows PSA requirements for accounting for employee future benefits, which includes post-employment benefits payable upon termination. Under these requirements, the cost of post-employment benefits is charged to operations annually as incurred.
1. Significant accounting policies (continued):

(h) Revenue recognition:

Contributions related to general operations are recognized as revenue of the General Fund in the year received or receivable. Restricted contributions related to general operations are recognized as revenue of the General Fund in the year in which the related expenses are incurred. All other restricted contributions are recognized as revenue of the appropriate Restricted Fund when received or receivable. Contributions for endowment are recognized as revenue in the Endowment Fund when received or receivable. Contributions are recognized in the respective funds if the amount to be received can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured.

Interest income is recognized when earned. Where grantors or contributors do not specify the treatment of interest income earned on funds provided, the interest income is recognized as revenue of the General Fund.

Rental and licence fees income are recognized when the service is delivered and collection is reasonably assured.

(i) Contributed gifts-in-kind:

The work of the Trust is supported by other gifts-in-kind donations in addition to those referred to in note 1(f). The donated items are recorded at fair value as revenue and expenses at the date of contribution when fair value is reasonably determinable.

(j) Contributed services:

A number of volunteers contribute a significant amount of time each year to assist in carrying out the Trust's service delivery activities. In addition, the Trust derives benefit from contributed in-kind services as a result of various arrangements with individuals, corporation and community partners. Because of the difficulty in determining the fair value, contributed services are not recognized in the financial statements.
1. Significant accounting policies (continued):

   (k) Financial instruments:

   (i) Financial instruments are recorded at fair value on initial recognition. Equity instruments that are quoted in an active market are reported at fair value. Management has elected to record all investments at fair value as they are managed and evaluated on a fair value basis.

   Unrealized changes in fair value are recognized in the statement of remeasurement gains and losses until they are realized, when they are transferred to the statements of operations and changes in fund balances.

   Transaction costs incurred on the acquisition of financial instruments measured subsequently at fair value are expensed as incurred.

   All financial assets are assessed for impairment on an annual basis. When a decline is determined to be other than temporary, the amount of the loss is reported in the statements of operations and changes in fund balances and any unrealized gain is adjusted through the statement of remeasurement gains and losses.

   When the asset is sold, the unrealized gains and losses previously recognized in the statement of remeasurement gains and losses are reversed and recognized in the statements of operations and changes in fund balances.

   Unless otherwise noted, it is management's opinion that the Trust is not exposed to significant credit, liquidity and interest rate risks arising from financial instruments.

   (ii) The PSA standards require an organization to classify fair value measurements using a fair value hierarchy, which includes three levels of information that may be used to measure fair value:

   - Level 1 - unadjusted quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
   - Level 2 - observable or corroborated inputs, other than Level 1, such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets or market data for substantially the full term of the assets or liabilities; and

   - Level 3 - unobservable inputs that are supported by little or no market activity and that are significant to the fair value of the assets and liabilities.

   The fair value measurement for all of the investments held by the Trust is categorized as Level 1.

(l) Allocation of expenses:

   The Trust owns and operates trust properties and collections, delivers heritage programs and events and manages business centres' activities. The costs of each of these functional areas include salary and benefits, supplies and other expenses that are directly related to providing the programs. The Trust also incurs general support expenses that are common to the administration of these programs.

   Executive office and corporate services unit salaries and benefits are allocated to trust property operations, heritage program delivery and business centre management based on time spent on each of the functional areas. General support expenses incurred are assigned proportionately to the function to which it directly applies.

(m) Use of estimates:

   The preparation of financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the year. Significant items subject to such estimates and assumptions include the amortization expense and accrued liabilities. Actual results could differ from management’s best estimates as additional information becomes available in the future.

2. Adoption of new accounting policy:

   The Trust adopted PSA board standard 3260 ("PS 3260"), Liability for Contaminated Sites, effective April 1, 2014. Under PS 3260, contaminated sites are defined as the result of contamination being introduced in air, soil, water or sediment of a chemical, organic or radioactive material or live organism that exceeds an environmental standard. This standard relates to sites that are not in productive use and sites in productive use where an unexpected event resulted in contamination. The Trust adopted this standard on a retroactive basis and there were no adjustments as a result of the adoption of this standard.
3. Investments:

In the current year, included in General and Restricted Funds' expenses is amortization expense of $20 and $356 (2014 - $27 and $318), respectively.

5. Employee future benefits:

(a) Pension benefits:

The Trust's regular employees participate in the Public Service Pension Fund ("PSPF") or the Ontario Public Service Employees' Union Pension Fund ("OPSEU-PF"), which are defined benefit pension plans for employees of the Province and many provincial agencies. The Province, which is the sole sponsor of the PSPF and a joint sponsor of the OPSEU-PF, determines the Trust's annual payments to the funds. Since the Trust is not a sponsor of these funds, gains and losses arising from statutory actuarial funding valuations are not assets or obligations of the Trust, as the sponsors are responsible for ensuring that the pension funds are financially viable. The Trust's annual payments of $386 (2014 - $353) are included in the expenses of the General and Restricted Funds in the statement of operations.
5. Employee future benefits (continued):

   (b) Non-pension benefits:

   The cost of post-retirement non-pension employee benefits is paid by the Ministry of Government Services and is not included in the statement of operations. The Trust also provides termination benefits earned by eligible employees. The amount of legislated severance payments, unused vacation pay and other termination benefits accrued at year end was $1,175 (2014 - $1,093), of which $439 (2014 - $300) has been classified as a current liability.

6. Related party transactions:

   As an agency of the Province, the Trust is required to procure mandatory Central Common Services from other designated government ministries and/or agencies. The Trust receives payroll, workforce information network, employee benefit plan administration, recruitment advertising, legal, telecommunication, bulk mailing, insurance and risk management services from the Province.

   In addition, the Trust delivers heritage programs, activities and special events in partnership with other provincial government ministries and/or agencies and secures funding through granting programs administered by the provincial government ministries and/or agencies.

   These related party transactions are conducted on an arm’s-length basis and are recorded at fair value.

   Amounts receivable from and payable to the Province and outstanding at each year end are as follows:

10. Inter-fund transfers:

    Unrestricted contributions recognized initially in the General Fund and set aside from time to time by the Board of Directors' resolutions are allocated as required to address various approved internal priorities or contingencies. These transactions are reported as inter-fund transfers between the General Fund and Internally Restricted Funds.

    Inter-fund transfers in fiscal year 2015 primarily represent the release of internally restricted funds to mitigate the annual General Fund operating deficit.

11. Credit facility:

    The Trust has a demand credit facility to a maximum of $250,000, bearing interest at prime plus 1/4%. As at March 31, 2015, the Trust did not have any borrowings outstanding under this facility (2014 - nil).

12. Commitments:

    At March 31, 2015, the Trust had commitments under Restricted Funds of $104 (2014 - $865) for matching grants expenditures directed to communities, including eligible non-profit organizations and municipalities, to preserve, restore and maintain their heritage properties.

    The various grant agreements contain requirements for specific milestones to be achieved by the grantee before grants will be issued. As such, no liability has been set up for these commitments at March 31, 2015.

13. Financial instruments:

Market risk:

Market risk arises when the value of an investment portfolio decreases as a result of changes in the volatility of interest rates, stock prices, foreign exchange rates and commodity prices when fixed income securities are traded periodically. The Trust manages possible market risks through established investment policy parameters, which prescribe a conservative asset mix of investments, limits concentration levels in types of securities and sets acceptable bond ratings. Current investment policy provisions restrict investment in stocks, commodities and foreign currency and, as such, alleviate any exposure to risks in these areas.

There have been no significant changes to the risk exposure from 2014.

Certain comparative information has been reclassified to conform with the financial statement presentation adopted in the current year.
