

Aboriginal Music and Storytelling Workshop

Fulford Place

Wednesday, July 26, 2017 | 9 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Fulford Place, 287 King Street East, Brockville

Explore Aboriginal arts and traditions with the Finkle/Leonard Clan!

This fun, interactive session has performances and activities for the whole family. Make – and play! – your own rawhide and birchwood rattle as you learn about Indigenous songs and stories.

Tickets: $20

Call 613-498-3003, email fulford@heritagetrust.on.ca or register in person at Fulford Place. Registration closes July 21.

David Finkle, of the Tyendinaga Mohawk Territory, is a traditional drum maker and Aboriginal Music Award winner.

His partner, Laura Leonard, of Maliseet descent, is a recognized hand-drum singer and craftsperson.

This event is presented as part of the Ontario Heritage Trust's MyOntario – A vision over time to mark the long cultural history of what is now Ontario – a history that stretches back more than 10,000 years. Share the places, memories, photos, artifacts, artworks and traditions that inspire you! Join the conversation: heritagetrust.on.ca/myontario #MyOntario
